

Hotel San Bada

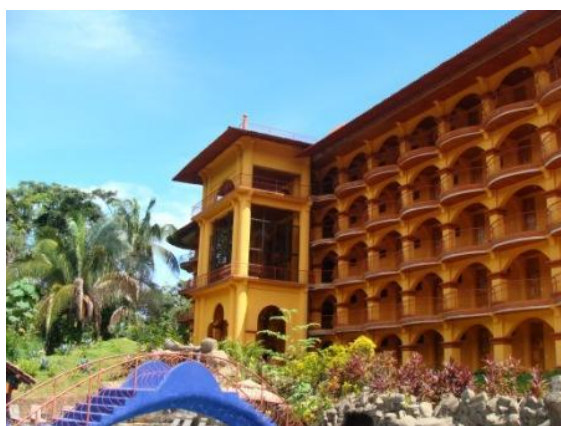

Enjoy one of the best experiences in Costa Rica lodging in the new Hotel San Bada, right besides the world-wide recognized Manuel Antonio National Park, just a few steps from your room. Hotel San Bada is located two minutes walking, from one of the most visited beach of Costa Rica and the most beautiful of the country, Manuel Antonio Beach.

Hotel San Bada is approximately 6km from downtown Quepos and its marine port, to 12km from the local airport La Managua, and about a 174km from the international airport Juan Santa Maria and the capital of the country San Jose.

The journey from the international airport to the hotel is about 2 and a half hours by car, through colorful places by mountains, bridges that cross rivers full of crocodiles and highways that border the coast of the Costa Rican Pacific. In a domestic flight from the Juan Santa Maria International Airport or from Tobias Bolaños Airport to the local airport would last for approximately 25min and would be able to observe the mountains covered with beautiful foliage and the beaches from the central pacific.
